LEMON GROVE CALIFORNIA, THURSDAY, JUNE 19, 1952

McMahan's Comes To "Expanding" Lemon Grove

Who's Who in Lemon Grove

Mrs. Channing Mason recently was named to head the newly formed Kiwanian. Practically any civic project in the Grove area finds Carroll or Channing Mason taking an important part so when the wives of local Kiwanians recently decided to form a distaff group, Carol Mason appeared to them a natural and logical choice.

Chan who works all day, indulges in the more sedentary games after the work day is done. "They take a long camping trip every year with their father," Mrs. Mason said, "and they like that best of all." With two robust youngsters to raise Mrs. Mason has been active in church work. She teaches Sunday school at the Trinity Presbyterian Church, is active there in the Women's Society. She is a Wednesday Club member and is active in the Republican Women's Club.

C. S. Dail, former owner of the Daily Drive-In Home Furnishings in Lemon Grove announced yesterday with McMahan that his business premises had been leased. Dail has been in business at the Olive and Broadway address for nearly three years. He built the premises he occupied.

Prior to coming to Lemon Grove he was in business at 10th and University for a good many years and is widely known in the San Diego area. He originally came here to join the Marston Co. in 1924 and later opened his own business.

Sixty Second Hitching of Tractor Tools

A new 3-point hitch recently introduced by the Minneapolis-Moline Co. makes changing of rear mounted tractor tools quicker and easier. Called the Hitcher, it is an extremely flexible hydraulic system for a tractor of 2-plow size and can be adapted to control pull-behind as well as front and rear mounted tools. Installation of the hitch does not interfere with the drawbar and is easy to reach, simple to operate. The operator merely adjusts the lower self-locking hitch points to the same height as the linking points on the implement, then couples them by backing the tractor. A pin is then inserted in the upper hitch point which has an easy turning wheel for length adjustment. This allows easy alignment on uneven ground and also permits accurate adjustment of operating angle of the implements.

Cars Bought Out Of State Taxable

Purchasers of automobiles in other states to be used in California may incur use tax liability, according to Wm. G. Bonelli, executive of the State Board of Equalization which administers the use and sales tax.

Bonelli suggests that individuals who have purchased or are planning to purchase a car outside of the state ask themselves the following questions: Was the car bought from a dealer and the purchaser plan to use it in California, was most of its use in California, does the purchaser plan to use it in California, and the purchaser plan to keep the car in the state?

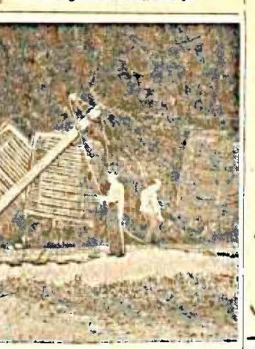

If these conditions all apply the purchaser owes the state the use tax of 3 per cent on the cost of the car, which takes the place of the 3 per cent sales tax which would have to be paid if the car were bought in the state. On the other hand if one of the listed conditions did not exist, there is a possibility the use tax would not be applicable.

The Division of Motor Vehicles automatically advises the Board immediately upon registration of a car purchased out of state, whether or not the purchaser reports it to the Board. It is also possible the resident of another state who brings his car into California for use may owe this state a tax even though he paid a sales tax on it in his own state.

Bonelli's final advice on the matter is: Be safe. Find out about your liability as soon as possible and if no use tax is due in California, the Board will be happy to tell you.

Meeting To Cover S. Cal. Bird Raising

For centuries man has given livestock and birds protection from the weather, but has always been handicapped because he has never known what the proper environmental conditions were. Man made climate for turkeys and chickens will be discussed by University of California poultry specialist W. O. Wilson at the University's first Annual Poultry Institute to be held this week at Chaffey Junior College in Ontario.

Wilson will stress such subjects as the trend of modern poultry housing and brooding facilities and in doing so shed further light on recent research findings pertaining to the modifying of high temperatures by use of foggers and modifying air movements by wind breaks.

The University poultry specialist's talk will also include the adjusting of outdoor living techniques to the housing of California birds.

FARM NEWS

High-quality silage is a succulent and nutritious stock feed when green forage is not available. How to make silage from many forage crops and crop by-products on Lemon Grove ranches are discussed in SILAGE, SILAGE CROPS AND SILOS, recently published by the University of California College of Agriculture.

The author, Francis L. Smith, associate professor of agronomy, and Loren L. Davis, Agricultural Extension Service, also described the three types of silage storage: tower silos, pit silos and trench silos.

The costs of producing and storing both corn and alfalfa silages are also given.

S. C. Edison Executive Demands Government Economy

The average Lemon Grove breadwinner, who pays enough in high taxes in four or five years to make the down payment on his home here, should demand that the federal government match his sacrifices with some Spartan austerity in non-essential spending.

This statement was made this week by Lane D. Webber, national vice president of the Southern California Edison Company, who said: "Individual freedom and local initiative shrink as Federal bureaucracy grows."

"And," he continued, "a Federal Administration which has collected more taxes in seven and a half years than all the American administrations in history—some $77 billion dollars—has some room for economy."

"Justification for high taxes for defense and other essential purposes must be made by a government willing to lead the way in all practical economy. The sure for inflation is to set a sound course toward a sound dollar—surtail credit for non-essentials, reduce wasteful federal spending, adopt a fair tax program and pay as we go. Then, and only then, will there be a justification for taxes of the magnitude we must face to have adequate defense."

$37 Millions School Need By 1956

Nearly half of the 63 school districts in San Diego County have classroom needs which would cost seven million dollars immediately and an additional 37 million by 1956, in excess of known financial resources. This was revealed this week in a preliminary survey made through the office of the County Superintendent of Schools by the U. S. Office of Education.

$25,000, 2-year-old fillies, 6 furlongs; Mon. Sept. 1—$15,000 Del Mar Handicap, 3-year-olds and up, 1 1/8 miles; Sat. Sept. 6—$15,000 Del Mar Futurity (2st. gross value $42,000), 2-year-olds, 6 furlongs.

SAN DIEGO COUNTY HISTORICAL SCRAPBOOK

Compiled from the historical records of UNION TITLE INSURANCE AND TRUST COMPANY • SAN DIEGO

Back in the 1890's a handful of San Diegans, interested in playing golf, joined together and formed the San Diego Country Club. For some time they met in the homes of the members, but by 1897 had constructed their own clubhouse. This photograph, from the historical collection of Union Title Insurance and Trust Company, shows the original, modest structure as it appeared at Christmas, 1897. The land was a gift from the University Heights Land Company, and was between University and Upas Street near Park Boulevard.

By 1913 the growing membership made this clubhouse inadequate, and another home was constructed on Point Loma, northeast of the present Naval Training Center. The presence of the clubhouse on the Point was considered an asset in selling building sites on what hitherto had been an undeveloped area. By 1920 the rapidly growing club had again outgrown its location. This time, a site of 147 acres was purchased in Chula Vista, and the present home of the San Diego Country Club, with its famed golf course, was constructed.

and the California State Department of Education.

"Approximately 10,000 children in these 30 deficit districts are housed in overcrowded, unsatisfactory, or unsafe school buildings," said Dr. Cecil D. Hardesty, County Superintendent of Schools.

The state-wide survey revealed that the cost of school plant needs for deficit districts in California by October, 1956, will exceed $636,571,000. More than half of the school districts in the State are in the deficit class. Los Angeles County has the greatest need for additional funds. It has 73 deficit districts requiring 29 million dollars now and an additional 111 million dollars by 1956.

"A State bond issue for more building funds appears to be absolutely necessary in the near future," Dr. Hardesty said.

Co-operation Between Western States Needed
"Traffic control, should Russia launch an attack on this country, is definitely a problem requiring the closest co-operation between states," said Maj. Gen. Walter M. Robinson, California State Director of Civil Defense, during this week's state-wide broadcast of the State Office of Civil Defense.

There are, at all times, a minimum of 30,000 out of state visitors in California. In event of an emergency, these visitors and perhaps additional people may be expected to start for home.

"We recognize the fact that these visitors who wish to return to their homes have a perfect right to do so. But it must be done in an orderly manner. Registration centers for organizing and controlling this movement will be established and a system of priorities will be put into effect."

Col. John Chapman, Civil Defense Director of New Mexico, pointed out that similar problems would face motorists in the long trek across the transcontinental highways traversing New Mexico.

Similar problems of shortages of supplies of every kind would confront any mass movement across Nevada via highways US 40 or US 50, said C. A. Carlson, Jr., Civil Defense Director of Nevada.

Almost a hundred of electrical appliances will be given as prizes as part of the opening festivities of the Marjohns Appliance Co., 3971 Broadway. The new shop will open Thursday June 26th and registration for prizes will take place Thursday and Friday. The drawing will take place Friday at 8 p.m.

Among the gifts to be given is a 9 cubic foot electric refrigerator, a genuine Frigidaire with all the newest innovations. Other prizes will be a Mixmaster, a Packard Bell radio, a Wafflemaster, a Toaster, and a Coffeemaster.

Soft drinks will be given to all who attend the store during the opening days. Cologne will be given to the ladies and key chains will go to the men. Hundreds of balloons will be given to the kiddies.

The new shop is housed in a 2600 square foot structure built by Marjohns. A paint firm will occupy the other side.

Dresbach formerly was a commercial refrigeration contractor in Yuma. His firm the Yuma Refrigeration Co. employed 5 technicians. He spent five years in the air force entering an enlisted man and coming out a captain. He served as an airborne radar operator. Originally he came from Rochester, Minnesota.

where he had entered the refrigeration business. He also attended refrigeration factory training schools.

The Dresbachs have three children. In addition to the problems of the opening, they are attempting to find a lot on which to build a home for the family.

They hope to have at least a thousand registrants by the time of the drawing. The only reservation in connection with the contest is that it is necessary to be present in order to win.

Notes From Trinity Presbyterian Church

Rev. John Chandler is spending the week at Santa Cedar Glen, near Julian, with a number of the Junior High Westminster Group of this church.

It was with great sorrow and deep sympathy for the family, that he came back to conduct the funeral of our first chapter member, Wm. Allen Averett, of 1002 Dolores, Spring Valley, to be called home. He will return to spend the rest of the week at the camp.

Rev. George Lohr will conduct the Bible Class on Wednesday evening at 7:45.

Next Sunday will be Youth Sunday. Rev. Chandler will have as his Sermon Topic, "Our Most Precious Cross."

Mrs. Herman Lawler was operated on last Friday in Balboa Hospital. She is doing nicely and will be home in a few days.

New members will be taken in Sunday June 29th. New members coming in should contact the Church office, so that communion classes may be set up.

June 22nd will be the first church picnic of the year, on the church grounds. Every family is to bring their own picnic lunch, and there will be coffee and punch served. A short devotional will follow.

On Saturday all men who are able and willing should join the work party at the church to clear up the grounds preparatory for the picnic. Attention all parents: One and a half hours of your time on research through informative pictures and discussions with active experienced Boy Scout Leaders, may result in improving your boy and his future.

If you and your boy attend the meeting at the Trinity Presbyterian Church, Tuesday June the 24th from 7:30 to 9 p.m. A united effort is necessary, and your boy is worth it. Supervised nursery care will be provided for your younger children during the meeting.

The Junior Choir will have a rehearsal Saturday morning at 9:30. They will sing at the morning service, Sunday June 22nd.

Mrs. Plummer still needs new members to keep the choir up to full strength during the summer vacation. Rehearsal Thursday 7:45 p.m.

The Senior High Westminster group asks that everyone bring their papers for the paper drive to the church Sunday morning. Please tie them securely in bundles. There will be no meetings of the Senior High Westminster group during the summer, but there will be two social meetings which will be announced at a later date.

Don't forget the Fall Festival is coming up.

Presbyterian Men Elect Officers

Mr. Walter C. Reagan was elected President of the Men's Brotherhood of the La Mesa United Presbyterian Church at a meeting on June 10. Other officers elected at the meeting were: Vice-President, O. R. Bailey; and Secretary-Treasurer, D. S. Hatcher. Following the brief business meeting, the men enjoyed two color films on deep sea fishing. This community Men's club is open to all men of the area, regardless of church affiliation. Meetings, held the second Tuesday of each month at 7:30, are informal with the emphasis on fellowship, fun and relaxation.

The group, which already sponsors a Boy Scout Troop, voted at this meeting to organize and sponsor a new Cub Pack in the Rolando-La Mesa Dale area in which the Church is located.

Foster Homes for S. D. Children Needed

There is a very great need for foster homes in San Diego County. Several hundred San Diego families, large and small, are interested in foster work, but many more such families are needed.

Children in foster homes come because their own homes have been broken up, and their parents cannot, at least for awhile, provide for them. They are not adoptable children as they all have family ties and maintaining these ties is important to the youngsters. However they desperately want understanding, substitute parents who can provide them with love and security. They want to share a normal home where family members are happy, well adjusted and free from emotional and financial difficulties or health problems.

A license is necessary to care for unrelated children, this is a requirement designed to protect all youngsters. There is no fee for the license itself. The word "license" should not be frightening — it simply means that certain minimum standards are provided so children will be protected. Workers studying the homes must have the assurance that the emotional needs of children will be adequately met; there fore getting acquainted with the prospective foster parents is a most important consideration.

If you are interested in hearing more about the foster home program, please contact the Foster Home Unit, Department of Public Welfare, Civic Center, San Diego, at Franklin 9-6661.

Sunday Text Says Spirit Forms and Governs Universe

The universe of Spirit is created and sustained by God and not by material force, the Lesson-Sermon in all Christian Science Churches declares. The question "Is the Universe, including Man, Revolved in Atomic Force?" is the subject. The Golden Text is from Amos (4:13): "For he that formeth the mountains and createth the wind, and declareth unto man what is his thought, that maketh the morning darkness and treadeth upon the high places of the earth, The Lord, The God of hosts is his name."

HALF TB CASES UNREPORTED

It is estimated that about 500,000 people in this country have active tuberculosis. Only about 250,000 of this group are known to the health authorities. The remaining 250,000 are unreported or unknown cases and many of them do not know they have the disease.

A major problem in TB control is the fact that so many persons with active TB, unaware that they are ill, spread the disease to those who are well. Mass X-ray surveys show that one or two persons of every 1,000 adults X-rayed have active TB, and some of these people never suspected that TB had struck.

An annual chest X-ray will either give satisfaction of knowing that lungs are sound, or it will give the opportunity of finding TB early should it strike, and getting treatment for it when it is easier to cure.

(This column is sponsored, in the interest of better health, by the San Diego County Tuberculosis and Health Association and the Lemon Grove Review.)

GOOD NEW HOME-MAKERS

By Anne Marshall

A PERFECT CASSEROLE — one that a housewife can make in 15 minutes — is the answer to every homemaker's prayer in the good old summer-time. And a dish that really fits that description is one made with tuna, condensed cream of mushroom soup, potato chips, and peas. Every item is standard stock of the kitchen shelf. So for the easiest ever dinner, just reach and mix.

Perfect Tuna Casserole
1 can (1 1/2 cups) condensed cream of mushroom soup
1/2 cup milk
1 can (1 cup) tuna, drained and coarsely flaked
1 1/2 cups crushed potato chips
1 cup cooked green peas, drained

Empty soup into a small casserole, add milk and mix thoroughly. Add tuna, 1 cup potato chips and peas to soup; stir well. Sprinkle top with remaining 1/2 cup potato chips. Bake in a moderate oven (350° F.) for 20 minutes. Makes 4 servings. NOTE: Frozen peas may be added to the dish uncooked; bake at 350° F. for 45 minutes and they will be done.

"GONE FISHING": You can hang that sign on your door any day this summer. Just turn mealtime matters over to the dandy soup-way to good eating. Keep a supply of condensed soups and there's always a quick lunch or dinner at your fingertips — like this:

Vegetable or tomato soup, pimiento cheese sandwiches, crisp vegetable relishes for nibbling. Melon wedges with ice cream is the sweet finish.

HIGH NOTES in summer eating are bright-bird salad plates like this diet. Arrange two lettuce cups on a plate. Place a peach half in one, a scoop of cottage cheese in the other. Sprinkle with chopped nuts. In the other lettuce cup, put tuna salad made with crunchy celery and chopped stuffed olives. Garnish with celery curls. A basket of warm cheese-sprinkled toast goes well with the salads.

WASHINGTON AND SMALL BUSINESS

By C. WILSON HARDER

In view of the concerted drive still underway to abolish the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, it is interesting to note the report just issued by Telford Taylor, head of the Small Defense Plants Corporation.

In its second quarter of existence, the agency aided 400 small concerns secure needed materials to handle defense contracts. In addition, 36 small companies received R.F.C. loans totalling $2,500,000 to carry out defense contracts. Thus the loans for a three month period were less than the United States gives away to European nations before noon on a slow day.

The Small Defense Plants Corporation report emphasizes much needs to be done to secure a fairer share of defense work for small firms.

In 1950, the report states, small firms received 24.5% of all prime military contracts, dropping to 20.9% in 1951, and to 18.8% in 1952 so far. However, the report indicates progress is being made to further aid small business by reversing this trend.

Against this report of constructive efforts, it is interesting to compare one week's report of the Office of Price Stabilization, the OPS, or Office Plenty Screwy.

Proudly, the Office Plenty Screwy announces in a press release that for the second consecutive week civil actions filed to U. S. Courts all through the land for damages exceed a million dollars.

When names are named, they are all small firms. OPS reports 36 cases were settled for $77,000 damages because no apparent willful violations existed.

But in 38 cases, where apparently willful violation was alleged, damages collected amounted to only $11,000. Thus, it appears that OPS is able to scare small business into bigger damages than it can win in expensive court actions.

For example, one small business man in Atlanta, Georgia, engaged in the rental and service of burglar alarms, was recently cited for raising monthly service fees to $5 to all customers who were not paying that much. This, the OPS says, is a violation, and OPS wants treble damages totalling $2,730-30 for alleged overcharges, totalling $913.12 in six months.

Some cynics explain this action with the remark, "Anybody like the Office Plenty Screwy, engaged in dipping into other people's pockets, can be expected to have a natural aversion to anything to do with burglar alarms."

The OPS is also anxious to keep liquor prices down. In Connecticut, the Office Plenty Screwy has filed charges against seven liquor dealers for selling above OPS ceilings.

The dealers were ordered by the Connecticut Liquor Control Commission which controls state liquor prices, to increase their prices, or run afoul of state law. Therefore, no matter what they did, these dealers faced court action. It is said behind the Iron Curtain some people are often permitted to choose between the salt mines in Siberia and the salt mines in Poland.

Shearer Thanks Voters In Grove

William K. Shearer, former Republican candidate for State Assembly in the new 77th District, extended thanks to all those in the Lemon Grove area who voted and worked in his behalf. Although he was able to win first place in Lemon Grove, he ran only a close second in the district in the Republican ticket.

"I expressed throughout the entire campaign my sincere conviction that a total Republican victory in 1952 will be beneficial to the country. The outcome of our

ORANGE FAIR BOOKLET READY

New Premium List booklets for 1952 Orange County Fair are now available for free distribution.

This year's Orange County Fair has been scheduled for Aug. 12-17 inclusive, at the newly remodeled 75 acre fairgrounds located on former Santa Ana Army Air Base between Santa Ana and Newport Beach.

A total of $40,703 in premium awards in a large variety of classifications will be offered exhibitors at the 1952 Orange County Fair. Nearly 200 new exhibit sections have been added to the list.

Big cash awards being offered winners in county, community and organizational feature exhibits are expected to attract a large number of elaborate entries in this department.

Prospective exhibitors may secure a free copy of the new Premium List Booklet and entry blank by writing to: Orange County Fair, 20001 Newport Blvd., Santa Ana, California. Type of exhibit entry should be indicated when writing.

Hope Seen In Nematodes Battle

The vexing problem of killing plant-damaging nematodes, those nearly invisible soil worms, with out killing tree roots on which they are feeding, finds scientists with at least a ray of hope.

Dr. Richard C. Baines, associate plant pathologist at the University of California Citrus Experiment Station at Riverside, has noted that test treatment of nematode-infested citrus trees in field with ethylene dibromide (EDB), applied in irrigation water at 1 and one-half gallons per acre with an emulsifying agent, has brought down a heavy infestation to 5 per cent in one year.

At the peak of the infestation, he said, roots of 15-year-old Valencia orange trees in the experiment showed a count of 100 nematodes per centimeter.

The chemical applications, however, still are doing some apparent damage to small food or roots of the trees, Dr. Baines remarked. Commercial treatment of soil for nematodes has been limited to fumigating of unplanted soil.

Cotton and Alfalfa Eyed By Scientists

Over 150,000 acres of cotton and alfalfa in the San Joaquin Valley will be under the watchful eye of 19 trained entomologists this summer.

The entomologists, especially trained in alfalfa and cotton pest problems, are hired by the growers to survey their fields for signs of built-up insect pests and recommend the latest control measures.

This supervised control program, now in its fifth year, was developed

Above The HULLABALOO

By LYTLE HULL

CAN IT BE TRUE that a number of our law schools are advocating the principle that man has no rights but only privileges granted by the state? If so, then those who teach this Red heresy should be thrown into the streets by the trustees of these institutions.

If the day ever comes when this notion produces a type of human being superior to all others and these human beings are elected by the people to manage their affairs for them, then it is conceivable that the country would prosper better in the hands of such demigods. But up to now, no such type is known to exist, and if it does, we are of the very definite opinion that it beats few politicians in its membership.

For as a general rule, the mentality of the American politician scarcely can be compared to that of Einstein.

The most irritating characteristic of those who believe in and teach the theory of socialism—or state control—is their firm conviction that they themselves, and they only, are capable of creating the perfect state. Talk to some of the little squirts who hold to the socialist way of life—and only squirts can prefer that to the American way—and you will find that most of them expect to be in the "management" when the great event comes about.

Twenty years of near socialism have colored the perspective of many an otherwise sensible American. These years have seen the introduction of un-American teachings in some of our schools and colleges. They have witnessed the indoctrination of large numbers of our people in theories diametrically opposed to the principles which have made America the symbol of freedom, of happiness and of prosperity.

And all this has occurred under the benevolent reign of the New Deal. Why, oh why, do millions want the extension of a principle of government which has destroyed empire after empire, nation after nation, and has brought as much misery to human beings—all through history—as any other factor?

Mosquitoes Triumph Over DDT

The sudden rapid rise in numbers of mosquitoes that have become resistant to DDT in the last few years is under investigation by entomologists at the University of California College of Agriculture.

William M. Hoskins, who has helped clear up some of the mysteries of resistance in houseflies to DDT, is in charge of the work.

Insecticide resistance vastly increases public health problems. DDT, once used in mass applications for controlling mosquitoes, is now ineffective in many areas of the state.

Hoskins and his associates are trying to figure out just how the mosquitoes develop resistance to DDT. From the work on the fly, they suspect that the mosquitoes break the DDT down into harmless products before the poison can go to work. But new chemical tests must be worked out to analyze the different mosquito strains for minute amounts of insecticide breakdown products. When these chemical tests are developed, the actual mechanism of DDT resistance in the mosquitoes can be figured out.

A complete knowledge of just how these insects handle the insecticides will also be useful in formulating new materials for control.

Ray F. Smith, professor of entomology, University of California College of Agriculture, said the survey is managed by paid volunteers for the growers. The University just trains the entomologists to do the job.

American railroads spend millions of dollars annually for ties that have been chemically treated to resist decay and termites. When pressure treated with preservatives like creosote, chemonite, etc., railroad ties last up to 5 times as long.

FARMERS CORNER

By Ralph H. Taylor

DO FARMERS LIKE GOVERNMENT CONTROL?

Farmers, like many other kinds of businessmen, are often quoted objectively as "for" or "against" a particular proposition when no such sweeping generalization is possible, regardless of what group one may speak of, the same question applies. Most people do not realize this.

Recently, however, one of our California farmers accurately reflected the feeling of most of our agricultural people here in this state. Frank Siri of East Palo Alto, Chairman of the San Mateo Production and Marketing Administration Committee, commonly known as a FMA committee, resigned his voluntary unpaid position, noting in his letter of resignation:

"(1) The new 1952 Special Conservation Program (ACP) in San Mateo County" was forced upon a county committee reluctant to accept the plan. Prior to this time I have felt some of the fact that the county FMA had discontinued payments on certain ACP practices. This was done because it was believed that through inducement payments farmers had been sufficiently educated and were performing these practices on their own. It was therefore not necessary to continue payments.

"We have been asked now to obtain increased participation in ACP and further to agree to include all of the practices that were discontinued. Our present national budget is staggering due to the necessity of increased military spending. Every effort should be made towards economy in government. With agriculture in general, I feel the ACP is absolutely not needed for expansion, as the amount of funds paid to farmers, is my opinion that rather than expand the ACP payments we should cut them back.

WANTED LOCAL CONTROL

"(2) Developments during the past several months have brought to light the fact that Washington politics are influencing the national conservation program. Evidence of this is the recent consolidation with the Soil Conservation Service (SCS) the Family Farm Policy Review, and the 1952 special ACP in San Mateo County. All of these the county committee has been forced to accept whether needed or not and whether right or wrong, for this area.

"(3) In accepting the 1952 special ACP we have agreed to have the Soil Conservation Service approve many ACP practices. Further, as previously mentioned, many practices which were discontinued are again included. Many of these practices have been accepted by local farmers and can not continue without ACP payments and without approval of the Soil Conservation Service.

"(4) I firmly believe that in the long run it is best to stimulate individuals to be conservation minded by educational means rather than by payments or enforcement. Farmers should not have to be paid for conservation practices which are normally done or which should be done in their ranches."

PRINCIPAL IS PARAMOUNT

Mr. Siri then brings to a close seven continuous years of membership in the FMA committee by saying:

"During the past 7 years of my membership as a committee member I have humbly attempted to perform the duties to the best of my ability. I can no longer continue as a member of this committee and still maintain the moral principals which I believe in."

This is the stuff of which farmers are made. They are human like everyone else, of course and few will refuse to accept checks handed them from a respectable source, particularly when—as with Government checks—they know they are helping to pay the bill for all the others who accept them. Mr. Siri's courageous and forthright action, however, is heartening as a stroke for the preservation of a free America. We believe it represents the real feeling of most farm people.
